

Fall 2011-Spring 2012

Community Leadership Training Program

Fall 2011-Spring 2012

Apply for this great program at Hunter College!!!

(Students with past or current public assistance experience are encouraged to apply)

Applications are being accepted for the Fall 2011 to Spring 2012

Community Leadership Program. For Fall 2011, the Welfare Rights Initiative 3-credit course is cross-listed under both (WGS 398.00) the Women and Gender Studies Program and (SOC 225.58) the Sociology Department. For Spring 2012, it's a 4-credit WGS (WGS 490.00) internship. The two-semester program explores past and current issues in welfare policy and includes workshops in meeting planning and facilitation, public speaking and community organizing, enhancing students' abilities to participate effectively in public settings and leadership roles.

For more information about the application and registration process, come to Hunter East, room E1222 or call Dillonna C. Lewis 212-650-3569 illewis@hunter.cuny.edu

Students with current or former public assistance experience are especially encouraged to apply, although others interested in these issues may also participate.

This will be a 3-credit seminar for Fall 2010 and 4-credit WGS internship for Spring 2011.

Classes will be held on Wednesdays from 10:10-1pm

Classroom and fieldwork study will be included.
